Summary

Hi there! My name is Sarveshwar Senthilkumar! I'm a technical and mathematically inclined person, who learned how to program in December of 2018 for my Genius Hour project, and when the project ended, realized I liked programming so continued to do it as a hobby developing many projects, you can see all my code above on my website. You can find most of my projects on my portfolio website at <https://sarveshwarsenthilkumar.github.io> or my GitHub profile at <https://github.com/SarveshwarSenthilKumar>.
